We know it's hard to know how to care for yourself, let alone your loved ones in times of illness, distress or death. We understand that different people have different needs and ways of finding their strength and their joy that are right for them. Sometimes you need help making choices. Sometimes you need to feel like you don't have to do this alone. Sometimes you just need someone to listen and hold your hand.

You never know what life will bring. Being prepared can make all the difference in the world to your loved ones.

We are dedicated to providing sensitive, helpful counsel that fulfills the needs and, most importantly, exceeds the expectations of your family.

We are here for you. To ask any questions or take your first steps toward peace of mind, call us at (440) 516-5555.

4 Simple Steps for Creating Peace of Mind

- 1. Record personal information that is required by the Bureau of Vital Statistics.
The Bureau will need your full name, address, occupation, birth date, spouse's name, parents' names and your next of kin or executor.
- 2. Make meaningful service choices. Decide on funeral or memorial service, cremation, burial, entombment or transfer to another city, and music selections.
- 3. Make specific selections for your remains. Choose a casket or cremation container, an urn, a burial or urn vault, and a monument or memorial marker.
- 4. Arrange a payment plan. You don't have to prepay for services, but you can lock in prices if you pay in full or arrange to make monthly pre-payments.

Denise Brennan

"It is rewarding for me to help people achieve the peace of mind that comes from making their decisions early, instead of leaving their family to deal with an emotional and financial burden on one of the hardest days of their lives."

As a Preneed Funeral Planning Specialist, Denise has been educating and reassuring families on the values and options available with pre-planning since 2002. She is adept at listening to you and asking questions to find answers that make your life better.

Diane Desmone

"It may seem daunting to talk about death with someone who knows you, let alone someone who doesn't. We do the work we do because we believe the most important and exciting part of life is the part between us, the power of connection, person to person."

Diane enjoys helping families plan ahead to ensure their financial and emotional needs are met at the time of death of a loved one. She engages you to find out what matters most to you and your family to make the most meaningful life celebration.

Why Pre-plan with DeJohn?

* It is FREE.

We want to be your steadfast partner in helping give your loved ones peace. There is no membership fee nor filing charge to record your wishes.

* DeJohn is locally owned and operated, and has been serving the Cleveland area for nearly 150 years. Our qualified and experienced staff, central locations, modern facilities and ample parking are important to many attending services.

* We make you feel at home, at our home or yours.

We can explore your options for pre-arrangement in our well-appointed facilities or in the comfort of your own home.

* "The Inflation-Proof plan"

Because funeral costs naturally rise over time, you will save money by prepaying.
